

Woodward & Lothrop

10th, 11th and F Sts. N. W.

Until further notice store will close at 5:30.

We Announce for Thursday and Friday, in our Corset Parlors, an Exhibition of

The "Lily of France" Corsets and Girdles.

In all the latest styles and shapes. A representative of the manufacturer will be in attendance to explain the details and take special orders. We shall be pleased to have you call and inspect the samples.

"Spring and Summer Goods are now filling the shops, and to get the first and prettiest designs in thin goods one must not wait until March."

The above is from recent "fashion notes" of an unquestionable authority, and is especially applicable to a line of

Paris Models in Golf Bonnets

For ladies and children, specimens of which are now displayed in one of our "F" street show windows. These highly picturesque novelties are in white and black, and exquisite shades of pink, blue, yellow and red. They are "poke" shape, with high puffed crown, curtain and wide ties, and are trimmed with one and two rows of quilling of same material. These are now in demand for ladies going south and will be used extensively later for seashore and country wear, and will take the place of lawn and garden hats.

Tomorrow, Thursday, we shall also make a

Special Exhibit and Sale of

Paris Lingerie and Bridal Trousseau

Representing an ideal gathering of dainty elegance and beauty personally selected in Paris by our lingerie buyer and not obtainable elsewhere. Also Paris Corsets with Silk Hose Supporters to match, Boudoir Gowns, Matinee, Breakfast Sacques, Tea Gowns, Lounging Robes, Bath Gowns and Silk Petticoats.

Special Inducements Are Offered in Paris Lingerie.

"Hechts' Greater Stores."

Extraordinary reductions in wraps, suits and skirts.

The time has come when we must see the surplus stock of ladies' garments brought down—and we have taken extraordinary measures to cause it. Prices have been reduced until all semblance of their former cost has been lost sight of. No woman can neglect the saving opportunities thus afforded—for it is sheer extravagance to remain away with such tremendous values staring one in the face. Even though prices are put down so low we offer to "charge" all purchases.

Figured brilliantine skirts, $1.19.

A lot of ladies' splendidly made figured brilliantine skirts, perfectly made and finished with blue and black, and with every evidence of the care which has been given them in every detail—go for only $1.19.

All-wool skirts, $1.98.

A lot of ladies' strictly all-wool serge skirts, in blues and blacks—made in the most thorough manner—very fashionable and well lined—will go for $1.98.

Any $15 coat, $8.50.

We offer the choice of any ladies' coat in the house, which sold up to $15, for $8.50—in such stylish shades as tan, mode, green, blue and royal and black. Made in the most stylish manner—cut as correctly as can be—splendidly lined.

Electric seal capes, $15.

Lot of ladies' fashionable electric seal capes, full 18-inch sweep—made in the most fashionable manner—made—worth $25—for only $15.

98c. for $2 to $3.50 undershirts.

And now comes the crowning value of the season—one that must eventually force more sales than ever the like of friendship between the store and its army of patrons. A maker came to us with an offer for his entire sample line of undershirts. The lot is made up of the very best quality all-wool undershirts, in the most desirable manner—some with damask and striped moire. All of them are lined in the most desirable manner—some with damask and striped moire. All have bounces and ruffles, and are elegantly made. If we were allowed to mention this maker's name you would at once recognize the best in the country. All bear the trade mark of the maker, however—proof of their perfect worthiness. The same stock of which these samples were sold at $3.50—and we offer the choice for only 98 cents.

The $3 waists at $1.49.

It's safe to say no other offer attracted such a crowd of buyers as the sale of ladies' all-wool waists at $1.49 has done. Several shoppers have been known to bargain the sterling value represented—and have hastened to take advantage of it. This second and larger lot which arrived the other day is going at a rapid rate—and late comers will meet with disappointment. The lot is made up of the very best quality all-wool waists, in the most desirable manner—some with damask and striped moire. All of them are lined in the most desirable manner—some with damask and striped moire. All have bounces and ruffles, and are elegantly made. "If they're Rich's Shoes they're proper."

Ten-two F.

The season of social entertaining is now at its greatest brilliancy. The fashionable world duly appreciates the unique services of this establishment, with its unrivaled gathering of footwear novelties and exclusive effects. No gown is complete without the finishing touch our footwear gives. For receptions, dances, teas, parties, balls, for state dinners and the "charity ball" we are admirably equipped for supplying the necessary footwear. When we haven't what you want in the dainty satins we make to order.

Every swell style and effect in footwear for golfing, riding, hunting, wheeling and like winter sports is here—and also a complete line of footwear for coachmen and footmen.

We've taken all the lots where sizes were incomplete and lines which we've decided to discontinue and put them on sale at greatly reduced prices. Thus you are afforded a chance to get Rich's fine shoes for what the commonplace sort usually cost.

Pink Ball Given by the Bachelors Last Night.

Receptions, Dinners and Dances—A St. Valentine Day Wedding—Personal.

Mrs. Wallack was the hostess last night at the second of the Bachelors' collations.

The ball was given at the Raffles Hall, and the decorations were in pink—draperies, flowers and favors. The latter for one figure were of pink roses and for the others pretty trinkets in pink paper. Mr. George M. Dunn led the collation, which was danced by about a hundred couples. Out-of-town men present included Mr. Frederick Townsend, Mr. Martin, Mr. Robert Parker, and Mr. William Crawford, all of New York; Mr. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., Mr. H. Percival Dodge and Mr. J. O. Minott of Boston, and Mr. Derby Farrington of Boston. Mr. Jesse Brown, Mr. C. C. Glover, Capt. McCawley, United States marine corps; Capt. J. C. Gilmore, United States army, and Mr. J. Gist Blair formed the reception committee.

The small and early dances which were a feature of last winter are shortly to be revived, and at least two meetings will be given before the season closes.

Miss Ailsa Houghton of Brookline, Mass., and the Adamowski quartet will provide the musical feast at Representative and Mrs. Sprague's Monday evening, January 23.

The Secretary of Agriculture and Miss Wilson gave a dinner of twenty covers last night. The guests were the Chinese minister and Mrs. W. Senator Allison, Senator Gilmore, Mr. Hingham, Prof. and Mrs. Wadsworth, Representative and Mrs. Henderson, Assistant Postmaster General and Mrs. Heath, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Courtenay, Mr. Hingham, Prof. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson and Mrs. Conway of Louisville. The table decorations were in La France roses, and were exceedingly pretty.

Mrs. and Miss Burdett, whose reception is always a most pleasing feature of the winter, were at home yesterday to callers at their pleasant home on Vermont avenue.

Mrs. Fuller, wife of the chief justice, with Mrs. Hugh Wallace and Mrs. Aubrey, sailed at 10 o'clock on Saturday for Europe. They will spend several months in southern Italy and France. Mrs. Fuller was not in good health all the fall and the trip was undertaken for her benefit.

Miss Fanny Fuller is in Berlin this winter with relatives and is devoting much of her time to her musical studies and especially to the study of the art of her really beautiful voice. Miss Jane Fuller, whose marriage with Mr. Nathaniel Francis, Jr., of Boston will take place in the near future, although the date is not yet definitely set, is keeping house for her father, and has besides the care of her sisters' children during the absence of their mother.

The Vice President and Mrs. Hobart and the cabinet families generally will attend the charity ball on the evening of January 24 at the Raffles Hotel, which promises this year to be more than usually brilliant. Attorney General and Mrs. Griggs will entertain the President and cabinet at dinner that evening and the latter will go directly to the ball after 10.

Secretary and Miss Wilson will give a dinner in honor of the President and Mrs. McKinley February 3.

Mrs. Swanson and Mrs. Henry Powers received together at the Riggs yesterday, assisted by Mrs. Colin Adair Studds and Miss Lyons.

The wedding day for Miss Worthington and Mr. Charles Frailey has been set for Tuesday, February 14. The ceremony will take place at noon at Epiphany Church.

At the party given by the Misses Platt, events of the last day of the gay season, Mrs. Worthington and her two younger daughters are going abroad early in the spring.

Another large dance last night was the Tuesday collation at Rauscher's. Mrs. L. L. Lomax, Mrs. Claude M. Johnson, Mrs. Edith Miller, Mrs. Philip A. Darnelle and Mrs. Heddens were the chaperones.

Mr. John G. Capers led the collation, which was danced by about a hundred couples.

The Misses Wymer gave a pink tea yesterday and entertained a large gathering of young people. They had received with them Mrs. Hawhurst, Mrs. Lane, Miss Edith Miller, Mrs. Mary Warner, Miss Platt, the Misses Donn, Miss Mann, Miss Rowland, Miss Bell, Miss Perrie and Miss Allen of Portland, Me. The drawing rooms and dining room were decked with pink roses and carnations.

Mrs. Leger, wife of the Haitian minister, gave a pleasant and a largely attended tea yesterday at the Regatta Hotel. The guests were seated at long tables, and the room was decorated with pink roses and carnations.
